HICAGO, July 19.—The crisis in the stock yards strike will come tomorrow afternoon. The allied trades unions in the stock yards, which are certain to become involved in the controversy if it is not soon settled, held a conference this afternoon lasting five hours and at its conclusion, a letter was sent to the packers asking for a joint conference between representatives of the strikers, of the packers and of the allied trades, to see if a settlement of the strike along peaceful lines cannot be reached. Tonight there was nobody who would say that the packers would

Arthur Meeker, manager of the Armour & Co., speaking for the other packers as well as for his own establishment, said that he would send a reply in the morning to the letter received this afternoon from the representatives of the allied unions. He declined to say, however, what the nature of the reply would be.

The unions joining in the request for the meeting represent all the trades the meeting represent all the trades the meeting represent all the trades the meeting have joined in a final appeal for arbitration between the packers and the striking butchers. President Donnelly of the Butchers' union said tonight that he was anxious to have peace, but that unless it came with the proposed conference tomorrow there would be a general sympathetic strike on the part of the allied trades unions. The letter asking for tomorrow's conference follows:
